

We Are Up In the Air

Too Much Goods On Hand

Like an airship, we are literally up in the air. Though a mammoth amount of business has been done during our present Removal Sale, we still have too much stock on hand. In the limited time left we propose to unload the major portion of this stock. It has been rearranged and the selection of satisfactory bargains will be an easy matter.

Inventory at Hand

Before moving we must, also, take inventory. Previous to doing it, we want to reduce stock to the minimum. This is an added incentive to sell goods. You can come next week and buy at a Removal Sale price anything in the store. "Removal Sale price" means a price much below the ordinary on an article of unquestioned merit. Absolute satisfaction is guaranteed on every sale, because we do business on a money-back-if-not-satisfied basis.

The Bazaar's New Home

Our new home, at 310-312 San Antonio St., is being rapidly remodeled and we hope to be in it the first week of March. We simply mention this to remind you of the short time now left for present Removal Sale.

ELLEN BEACH YAW GLAD THAT EL PASO APPRECIATES MUSIC; SAYS SO

Travel-stained from a long journey but sparkling with interest in El Paso, Ellen Beach Yaw, the grand opera star, she of the famous double high C voice, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, glad to be once again off of the rails. She and her excellent concert company registered at the St. Regis hotel.

Her very soul wrapped up in her musical work, her first utterance was "Do El Paso people love music?" On being assured that El Pasoans appreciated the best only, the great singer exclaimed, "Oh, El Paso is such a fine city. I have passed through here several times, but have never had the opportunity to stop over. The people are so kind to me everywhere and I know I shall enjoy my stay here."

Continuing she said: "In about two weeks I shall be in Boston, where I have an engagement to sing for the Boston grand opera. I have been away from America for nearly eight years and this is my first tour, having spent a most enjoyable visit at my home in southern California. It's so nice to be back home again."

The great star bubbles with winsomeness and is demure in telling about the great successes which she has achieved. Her conversation totally unaffected ripples in sweet melodious tones, but her interest is centered in El Paso's appreciation for music.

Worth Knowing About

VALLEY INTERURBAN PLANS MAY CHANGE

President Bassett Says the Matter Will Be Thoroughly Discussed at the Meeting This Afternoon.

That the projected El Paso and Fort Hancock interurban line is to be dropped was reported today, a meeting of the directors having been called at 3 o'clock.

Charles N. Bassett, president of the interurban, said it was his understanding that effort would be continued toward the construction of the valley line, but that other plans would be discussed relative to stock subscriptions.

The present plan of payment, he stated, is considered by some of the stockholders as tying up too much money with actual work in the future.

He remarked that it was his understanding that the work of securing land donations in the valley would be continued, but added that the matter would be thoroughly discussed at the meeting this afternoon.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Fred B. Shipp, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A. is here from New York today.

The city league basketball teams will play at the gym, tonight. The association will play the Southwestern team and the high school will meet the association Blues.

The older boys of the association gave a social Friday night. A bunch of 25 boys and Charles Brown were there.

LAND FRAUD CASE GIVEN TO JURY

Court's Instructions to the Jury in the Case Are Very Liberal.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 12.—The case against Blinger Hermann, former land commissioner, on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the government, went to the jury at 11 o'clock this morning.

In his charge to the jury Judge Wolverton said it was sufficient to show that a mutual understanding had been arrived at by two or more persons to complete a conspiracy. The intent, while an important ingredient of the conspiracy could seldom be directly proved, therefore direct evidence was not required. It is not necessary to prove to make the conspiracy complete, that Hermann received either direct or indirect benefit.
